

Cindy Mathews, music department office manager, began working for the music department in August of 2001. She meets with the board and has significant involvement with Bach Festival activities. In her free time, she enjoys golfing and reading. Cindy lives near Singers Glen, Va., with her husband David and their son Ethan.