

Sharon Bloomquist, a resident of Massanutten Village for the past 18 years, is involved in many musical endeavors as a piano accompanist, soloist and teacher. She is currently a member of “Friends at Play,” a two-piano, eight-hands group that has performed at benefits for the Blue Ridge Food Pantry and Free Clinic. An ardent lover of classical music, Sharon fully supports the Bach Festival and its efforts to enrich the community’s appreciation for excellent music presentations.