Aga Khan Foundation (Affiliate Office – go to website to get your local office details)

1825 K Street, NW, #901

Washington, DC 20006 Tel: (202) 2932537, Fax: (202) 7851752 Email: info@akfusa.org

The Aga Khan Foundation provides a limited number of scholarships each year for postgraduate studies to outstanding students from developing countries who have no other means of financing their studies. Scholarships are awarded on a 50% grant: 50% loan basis through a competitive application process once a year in June. Applications for short-term courses are not considered; neither are applications from students who have already started their course of study.

Geographic Scope: The Foundation accepts applications from countries where it has branches, affiliates or other AKDN agencies which can help with processing applications and interviewing applicants. At present, these are Afghanistan, Bangladesh, India, Pakistan, Tajikistan, Kenya, Tanzania, Uganda, Madagascar, Mozambique, Syria, France, Portugal, the United Kingdom, the United States and Canada.

Selection Criteria: The main criteria for selecting award winners are: 1) excellent academic records, 2) genuine financial need, 3) admission to a reputable institution of higher learning and 4) thoughtful and coherent educational and career plans. Candidates are also evaluated on their extra-curricular interests and achievements, potential to achieve their goals and likelihood to succeed in a foreign academic environment. In addition to the above, mid-career students are evaluated on their work experience.

Ambassadorial Scholarships will be awarded for study or training beginning after 1 July. During the study period scholars are expected to be outstanding ambassadors of goodwill to the people of the host country through appearances before Rotary clubs and districts, schools, civic organizations, and other forums. After study has been completed, scholars share their experiences with the people of their home countries and with the local Rotarians who sponsored their scholarships. All applicants must be citizens of a country in which there is a Rotary club. Initial application must be made through a local Rotary club in the applicant's legal or permanent residence, or place of full-time study or employment.

The USIP offers a variety of fellowships open to citizens of any country, from a broad range of professional backgrounds. These fellowships are designed to enable outstanding professionals and scholars to undertake research and educational projects that will increase knowledge and spread awareness among the public and policymakers regarding the nature of international conflict and the full range of ways to deal with it peacefully. Each year, the USIP appoints a number of Distinguished Fellows, who are eminent professionals or scholars with an excellent potential for bringing an understanding of international peace into their field. Both awards entail residence at the USIP in Washington, D.C., and carry stipends commensurate with the applicants professional salary. In addition to these fellowships, USIP offers research grants to qualified scholars and organizations in the field. In addition, USIP selects a number of graduate students to receive awards of $12,000 as Peace Scholars. For information, contact USIP Grants Program at address above.
