

Suzanne Ehst (C 96), an English teacher at Bethany Christian High School, Goshen, Ind., began graduate studies this past summer at Middlebury (Vt.) College.

Kathryn Suyes (C 96) is a public health nurse for the Rockingham-Harrisonburg Health Department.

Scott Yoder (C 96), a physician assistant, is moving from Grand Rapids, Mich., to Mansfield, Ohio.

R. Michael Weaver (C 96) began a career this past summer in bovine medicine and surgery in Gap, Pa. He earned a degree in veterinary medicine from Virginia Polytechnic Institute & State University.

Joseph (ADCP 96) and Barbara Wood and children live in Schuyler, Va. Joseph is a counselor at Fluvanna Correctional Center. Barbara is happy being a mother and homemaker and plans to do home-schooling.

Melani Guengerich (C 96), a fourth-grade teacher in Austin, Tex., was selected with 33 other teachers from her city to participate in the National Faculty/Smithsonian Institute Program for the 2001-02 year. It includes a week of study at the Smithsonian Institution in Washington, D.C., and curriculum development linking schools to museum resources.

Roberta (Bobbie) Barile (C 96) and Eric Legg recently moved to the Hopi Indian Reservation in northeastern Arizona, where Bobbie is a therapist with emotionally disturbed adolescents.

Jennifer Hawkins (C 96) Waltermire and husband Harley and two children live in Albuquerque, N.M. She teaches first grade at Emerson Elementary School.

Benjamin Bolanos (C 96) is the new humanities/history teacher at El Portal Leadership Academy in San Jose, Calif. The college prep school gives special help to low achievers.

Jennifer Kurtz (C 97) and John Murch, Harrisonburg, shared reflections of their life in Nicaragua at Pinto (Md.) Mennonite Church, where her parents attend, and at the Keyser, W.Va., high school where her father teaches. They served in Nicaragua for three years under Mennonite Central Committee.

Trent Hummel (C 97) graduated in May from the College of Medicine at the University of Cincinnati. He and wife Cara Derstine (C 97) moved to eastern Ohio, where Trent is in a pediatrics residency at Akron Children's Medical Center.

Rebecca Wood (C 97) graduated in May from the School of Pharmacy at the Medical College of Virginia with a doctor of pharmacy degree. She moved to Jackson, Miss., for a year of residency at the University of Mississippi Medical Center.

Peter Kraybill (C 97) received a juris doctor degree from Dickenson School of Law of Pennsylvania State University in Carlisle, Pa., in May.

Corinna Clymer (C 97) lives in Bass Lake, Calif., during the summer. She is a senior wilderness instructor for Summit Adventure, a Christian wilderness program in the Sierra Nevada.

Kimberlee Stimers (S 97) Greenawalt, Harrisonburg, was licensed last April as youth minister for Virginia Mennonite Conference.

Andrew (C 97) and Cassie Pennington have moved to Texas, where Andrew has accepted the position of senior high youth pastor at Reinhardt Baptist Church in Garland.

Tiffany Book (C 97) returned in June from a three-year assignment in Peru under Eastern Mennonite Missions.

Heather Newland (C 98), Mt. Jackson, Va., is the new director of social services at Pleasant View, an organization serving people with disabilities.

Mike Zook (C 98) is the new head coach of the boys soccer team at Harrisonburg High School. He was named "coach of the year" by his peers after the spring season.

Colette Sharp (C 98) has taken a team assistant position with Clipper magazine in Lancaster, Pa. She served the previous year in the Mennocorp Program (formerly PULSE) in Pittsburgh.

Karla Yoder (C 98) and Tom Buller live in Mountain Lake, Minn. Karla is the lead teacher and coordinator of a non-profit Christian day-care center. The center especially tries to serve unwed mothers.

David (C 98) and Liliana (C 99) Vega live in East Earl, Pa. David is a registered nurse at Calvary Fellowship Homes, and Liliana is a Spanish and English-as-a-second-language teacher in the Eastern Lancaster School District.

Willroy Grant (G 99) has returned to the U.S. after two years in Cuba as a Mennonite Central Committee intern. His speaking engagements across the U.S. focus on his Cuban experiences.

Monte Layman (ADCP 99), Luray, Va., has been named senior vice president of Page Valley Bank. He has had 30 years of banking experience, including 17 in the Luray area.

Deb Kilheffer (C 99) is a short-term intern in the village of Kemishtaj in Albania.

Adam Yoder (C 99) is youth pastor at Seattle (Wash.) Mennonite Church.

Lisa Guengerich (C 99) moved to South Bend, Ind., last January to work at Indiana University of South Bend. She is a bookkeeper for dining services. She served previously as western regional sales manager for Ten Thousand Villages.

Lisa White (C 99) began graduate school this fall at Western Michigan University in Kalamazoo. She is studying marriage and family therapy.

2000-01

Vaughn Gingerich (C 00), Wolcott, N.Y., is pest management coordinator for Fowler Brothers, which is a 1,000-acre apple orchard. He earned a B.S. in agronomy from Cornell University last December.

To Next Page

What's Your Sign?

C (class) undergraduate alumni. Anyone with at least 24 hours of credit (about one year).

G graduate program alumni. Anyone with at least 9 hours of credit (about one semester).

S seminary alumni. Same as "G".

ADCP adult degree completion program alumni

HS high school alumni. Anyone who graduated (or attended) before 1941, when the college and high school were combined.

The year assigned to you is the year you graduated or, if you dropped out, the year you would have graduated.