------------------------------------	------------	------------	-------------	------------	------------	-------------

* Includes 185 new first-year students and 16 additional students with first-year status.

 As of fall 2008-09 ADCP students are included in this report only once for each term of ADCP enrollment, even though that term may overlap more than one traditional semester. This change in reporting will create the appearance of lower ADCP enrollment when in fact the number of students enrolled has remained steady through the 2008-09 academic year.

 Due to cross-registration among the above groups the University Headcount may differ slightly from the total of all groups combined.
